CAMP AIMS and GOALS

The aim of this basketball day camp is to provide each player a strong dose of individual fundamental skills that can be applied to a team situation. I believe that the ultimate goal of a sound camp is to show and instruct each player the fundamental skills needed to play basketball. Hopefully, each player will use these skills and develop them at home for the upcoming season. The Serra coaches and players who staff this camp are dedicated to improving each player's fundamental skills during this four day session
