

2010 Robert Morris Summer Basketball Camps

Looking for a better basketball camp this summer? Then sign up for one of Robert Morris' Day Camps held at the Charles L. Sewall Center in Moon Township. We offer several instructional day camps that will help take your game to the next level. Led by 2008 and 2009 NEC Coach of the Year Mike Rice, our camps focus on improving fundamentals and teaching players new skills. From offensive sets to defensive strategies, the Robert Morris Coaching Staff and top High School Coaches from the area will focus on helping you become a stronger and more knowledgeable player. Throughout the week, our coaching staff will work to improve your shooting, rebounding, ball handling, ball pressure, passing, man and zone defense, and defense reading abilities.

Make the commitment to improve your game by signing up for one of our great camps today!
